CITY TRUSTEES

USUAL ROUTINE OBSERVED AND REPORTS OF OFFICIALS READ LAST NIGHT

The regular meeting of the board of trustees of the City of Glendale was held in the city hall Tuesday evening June 1, 1915, Monday evening, the usual night for the meeting, occurring on a legal holiday being the cause of the meeting being held Tuesday evening. There were present: O. A. Lane, president of the board, and Trustees Charles Grist, J. S. Thompson, A. W. Tower and Geo. Williams. Also present: T. W. Watson, city manager; J. C. Sherer, city clerk; W. E. Evans, city attorney; H. B. Lynch, manager of public service department; G. B. Hoffman, city treasurer. Absent, Edw. Lynch, city engineer.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. A communication was read from John B. Wright of 1546 Penn St. making application for the position of census enumerator in the third district of the City of Glendale. The communication was placed on file.

Communications were read from applicants outside of the city of Glendale asking that they be employed to audit the books in the various offices of the city of Glendale at the close of the fiscal year. The communications were received and placed on file. Trustee Thompson, chairman of the finance committee, said that he has in mind giving attention to the appointment of an expert auditor of the city's books, but it is his intention to give the work to a competent person residing in the city of Glendale.

Bids for the furnishing of wire for the lighting department were opened and referred to the manager of the public service department who later in the evening recommended that the contract for the furnishing of wire be given to John Roebeling Co. as that company submitted the lowest bid.

The city manager's report was read and the same is published in full elsewhere in this issue of the Evening News.

A report of the building inspector was read showing that 21 permits had been issued for new buildings this month, the valuation of the same being $8,810.

A report of the city recorder stated that he had received $22 as fines in criminal cases and $22 for fines in civil cases.

The city clerk's report was read and referred to the finance committee.

The following demands were read and referred to the finance committee, and will be reported upon at the next regular meeting of the board.

FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

MANAGER HAIL OF VERDUGO PARK TO BE HOST TO KIDS ON SATURDAY

Manager W. A. Hail of Verdugo park is arranging a picnic for the school children of Glendale and their parents next Saturday. Owing to the many duties incident to the closing of school, the teachers have been unable to take any active part in preparing for the annual closing picnic, but Mr. Hail invites all of the children and their parents and friends to spend the day at the park next Saturday and he promises them most courteous treatment. The visitors will have the use of the athletic field and a program of athletic sports being planned will interest all the youngsters. As all know, there are all conveniences for serving a picnic lunch at Verdugo park and this is an ideal place to enjoy a day with classmates before parting for the summer vacation. As on other occasions Mr. Hail will prove most hospitable and do everything in his power to make the day a happy one for kids, as well as for the teachers and parents and any others who care to join them.

W. C. T. U. DAY

Friday, June 11th, following the W. C. T. U. convention in Pasadena is W. C. T. U. day at the San Diego exposition. A special W. C. T. U. train leaves the Santa Fe station, Los Angeles, at 7 a. m. It will carry delegates and friends, returning on Saturday evening, leaving San Diego at 6:30 p. m. Round trip rate $3.85, with reduced hotel rate at the Polhemus. There will be special attractions and a great temperance pageant in costume. This excursion is open to any who may wish to go. For further information and tickets call Main 8753, Temperance Temple, or Glendale 1197J.

RUBY J. SMART.

MRS. SIPLE INJURED

Last evening as Mrs. K. C. Siple with her baby was driving her car west on Broadway near Pacific avenue a motorcycle passed her at high speed and in endeavoring to avoid the motor she swerved to the right. The sand at the side of the road caused the auto to turn turtle in the ditch, pinning Mrs. Siple and baby under the car. Help was soon at hand and the injured were removed to Thornycroft hospital, where their injuries were attended to. Both Mrs. Siple and baby are in a very serious condition, it being impossible to gauge the extent of their injuries at the present time.

NOTICE TO ALUMNI MEMBERS

There will be an important meeting of the G. U. H. S. Alumni association next Saturday night, June 5, at 8 o'clock at the high school. This meeting will be for the purpose of perfecting plans for the senior initiation later in June. Come and bring your ideas.

LADIES GET FUND

ELKS AND EASTERN STARS TURN OVER $115.10 TO TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

As a result of the rival efforts of the Elks and the Eastern Star to elect a queen for the recent Festival of Fruits and Flowers, the Tuesday Afternoon club has received for its building fund the handsome sum of $115.10. This is the net sum collected by the two orders.

The Elks altogether collected the sum of $155 and the Eastern Star collected $120.20. After deducting expenses the half of each sum was handed over to the ladies of the Afternoon club. The Elks turned in the net sum of $60 and the Eastern Star the net sum of $55.10.

This is highly creditable to both orders. They both worked faithfully and with much energy and perseverance. It will be seen from the sums taken in by both orders that the Elks polled 1550 votes for Barbara Mitchell and the Eastern Stars 1202 votes for Fredonia Borthick.

LUNCHEON BRIDGE CLUB

Monday having been a holiday all of the events of the week have been advanced one day, therefore the Tuesday Luncheon Bridge club is meeting today and being entertained by Mrs. A. L. Lewis at her charming home at 241 S. Kenwood St. The decorations are beautiful and unusual, Scotch broom, gailardias and French marigolds being used and these with the Royal Blue china used on the luncheon table produce a very novel and pretty effect. This is the last of a series of luncheons, the club having decided to meet for afternoon bridge during the summer months.

Those who are enjoying the three-course luncheon and the gracious hospitality of Mrs. Lewis today are: Mrs. Coleman of Pasadena, Mrs. Leigh Bancroft, Mrs. S. M. Street, Mrs. Frank Richardson, Mrs. Leroy Herrod, Mrs. C. O. Pulliam, Mrs. W. P. Snow, Mrs. Stephen Packer, the hostess and Miss Catherine Lewis.

GLASSCOE-ZADER

A pretty high noon wedding occurred Sunday which united in the bonds of matrimony Mrs. Pearl Zader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kerns of 331 North Central avenue, Glendale, and Mr. Charles Glasscoe. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Alan Nevlin of Sunland, the ceremony being performed under a large oak tree. Rev. Lewis Goddard read the impressive service in the presence of immediate relatives only. The bride until recently was a resident of Glendale and is an accomplished musician, she having graduated from the Los Angeles conservatory and the University of Southern California.

After a brief honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Glasscoe will be at home to their friends at 513 South Johnstone street in Los Angeles, the groom being connected with the Los Angeles brewery.

SEBASTIAN LEADS

WHEELER, CONWELL, LANGDON AND BETKOUSKI FOR COUNCIL

Latest reports from Los Angeles show Charles E. Sebastian leading in the race for mayor by 4700. The vote for councilmen at 1 p. m. stood: Wheeler, 54,381; Conwell, 53,529; Langdon, 44,883; Betkouski, 44,250; Lindsey, 38,965; Brain, 37,976; Roberts, 34,772.

TO FLOWER LOVERS.

It is proposed to form a Glendale Horticultural society, which all amateur and professional growers and all lovers of gardens are invited to join. A preliminary meeting will be held next Thursday evening, location and time to be announced tomorrow. The following will be glad to receive names and suggestions: Prof. Hawdyshell, high school; Mr. Freeman Kelley, Brand boulevard; Mrs. Nanno Woods, 1222 Milford street, Sunset 394.

STATE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

The thirty-third annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union of Southern California will be held in Pasadena June 7, 8, 9, 10, 1915, in the First Methodist church, corner of Marengo and Colorado streets. Delegates from the Glendale union are: Mesdames Smart, Moore, Morton, Harrell, Frank, Miss Askeland and Mrs. Gaylord. Alternates: Mesdames Leavitt, Greenwalt, McKeehan, Potter and Burns.

Besides the regular reports on the work of the year many interesting features will be presented by special speakers. The session opens Monday evening at 7 o'clock with a reception by the Pasadena federation. Greetings from the ministerial association, Parent-Teacher association and the W. C. T. U. federation will be tendered and the responses given by Mrs. Stella Irvine for the state society and Mrs. Eva Wheeler for the national society of W. C. T. U.

President Blanchard's address will be given Tuesday evening and a fine male quartet will furnish music. The business for Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock will be the election of officers. Besides many notable women the brothers are largely in evidence.

Further features will be: A symposium, "California Wet or Dry," given by Dr. Matt S. Hughes, Rev. John G. Blue, Dr. Daniel F. Fox, Dr. S. W. Cummings. Dr. James S. McGaw will also discuss "The Bible in Public Schools," and Dr. Hughes, "Dramatics and Dancing in Public Schools." Rev. and Mrs. Clyde S. Shephard will present a "Peace Drama;" Rev. Frank Durham an address on "The Problem of the Unemployed;" "A Century of Peace," Prof. A. B. Scherer; "Esthetic Physical Culture" in Greek costume by Mrs. Ella Andrews. The L. T. L. and young people will have their usual attention and the Frances Willard chorus will furnish the music at business sessions.

WAR ON BUGS

CIRCULAR ISSUED BY UNIVERSITY CONTAINS BAD NEWS FOR INSECTS

There is bad bug news for the bugs of California. The University of California has just issued a circular on "Insecticide Formulas" in which Professor C. W. Woodworth tells how to prepare and use the stuff that long experience has proved most useful in fighting the pests.

He tells, for instance, how to prepare hydrocyanic acid gas for fumigating houses or citrus trees; how much neutral lead arsenate to use with stone fruits or foliage; how to mix Paris green for codling moths; how to poison bran and molasses with white arsenic for cutworms and grasshoppers; how to destroy ants with white arsenic; how to spray scale on deciduous trees, in the dormant season, with home-made lime sulphur, or how to spray peachblows as they expand in the spring; how to use gasoline—but not too much—for woolly aphis on apple trees, and for borers in woodwork, moths in garments, and fleas in carpets, and kerosene for ticks, bedbugs and mosquito wrigglers; how to prevent mosquito breeding by spreading oil on infested water, but drainage is best, if practicable; how to paint trunks with asphaltum to control the peach tree borer; how to use sulphur against red spiders, soap for plant lice, tobacco for aphids, pyrethrum for fleas, whitewash for thrips on pears, carbon bisulphide for grain weevils, ants and squirrels, and one small teaspoonful of forty per cent formaldehyde in a saucer of water—that is, one part to twenty parts of water—to tempt flies to commit suicide.

If any of these enemies of farm and fireside plague you the University will mail this insect war manual free upon the sending of a request to the College of Agriculture at Berkeley.

WELL-PREPARED FLOAT

One of the floats that attracted special attention in the parade on Saturday was the car driven by Mrs. Ella W. Richardson, representing the Municipal Playgrounds. The car was driven by Mrs. Richardson and on the float were her sons, Paul and John, and little Misses Barbara Kranz and Mabel Todd. Tennis courts and other features of the playgrounds were portrayed and the children were engaged in athletic sports. The float was prepared by children with a little grown up assistance.

AT THE EXPOSITION

James W. Pearson, who is enjoying the exposition at San Diego writes that the fair is a thing of great beauty and every one should see it. The crowds are very good and everything is in full swing. Great credit is due the management for the success of the undertaking. It is thoroughly Spanish throughout, honoring the early history of the section.

GLENDALE FIRE DEPT.

WARNING TO THE PUBLIC FOR PREVENTING FIRES DURING THE DRY SEASON

On account of the very heavy growth of vegetation on the vacant lots this year and the frequency with which the fire department is called out to fight grass fires this early in the season this warning is issued to the public for the prevention of fires during the coming dry season.

Clean up the dry vegetation around the fences and outbuildings of your property for about four or five feet from the fences and buildings so as to prevent grass fires spreading to same.

Do not wait for the owner of vacant lots to do this. Believe in the motto, "Safety First." Have some wet sacks handy in the event of grass fires on adjoining vacant lots. Have your garden hose connected to faucet, ready for any emergency. Remove broken glass from vacant lots adjoining your property, as the action of the sun's rays on glass is a frequent cause of starting grass fires. On hot days "wet down" around your fences and outbuildings.

The burning of grass, rubbish, etc., is permitted between the hours of 6 and 9 a. m. and 7 to 9 p. m., and citizens should be fully aware that they are "playing with fire" in more ways than one when they burn rubbish outside of these hours, laying themselves liable to the burning up of valuable property of other people as well as their own by starting fires outside of above hours, as the wind usually rises after 9 a. m. and the grass gets hot when it is very hard for an inexperienced person to handle a grass fire, but very few seem to realize this danger, or are afraid to start a fire after the heat of the day sets in and the wind rises, thinking no doubt that the fire department will take care of it in case the fire gets beyond their control. The firemen will to the best of their ability, but one of the worst features of this dangerous practice is that several grass fires are likely to spring up at once in widely separated parts of the city, and one or more of them get beyond control before the department could finish fighting the grass fire they were working on, thus causing considerable damage if one of the fires should ignite some residence or outbuilding. And in addition to this danger a more important fire is liable to start up while the department is out fighting a grass fire, carelessly started, and get a good start before the department could get the call, finish extinguishing the grass fire, and get to the scene of the larger fire.

A fire prevented is far better than one extinguished. If citizens would only consider the chances they take when starting grass fires in the heat of the day or while the wind is high, and without proper assistance and facilities for handling same at hand, there would be fewer fires.

GEO. H. HERALD, Chief.

PHILATHEA GIRLS PICNIC

The Philathea girls of the Presbyterian church held their regular monthly business meeting Tuesday evening at La Ramada. After transacting the usual business they enjoyed a bountiful picnic supper where all the good things that go with a picnic supper were served. After supper all repaired to a soda fountain where they were much refreshed by cooling drinks. The girls are planning numerous affairs of this kind for their comfort and pleasure during the summer months. Those who enjoyed the evening were Misses Mina Robertshaw, Fern Porter, Pearl Adams, Helen Wallace, Ethel Wilde, Jennie Horsch, Marie Quinch, Mae McIver.

JENNINGS TONIGHT

This evening at the First Baptist church of Glendale Al Jennings, reformed bandit and train robber, recently converted by Rev. J. H. Troy, the pastor, will speak. Jennings' struggle to "beat back" has attracted nation-wide attention and many have read the story of his life and heard him speak. His first message as a follower of the lowly Nazarene will be of intense interest. Tomorrow forenoon Jennings will speak to the students of Glendale Union high school and in the evening the services at the Baptist church will be especially for high school pupils, who will attend in a body.

The Baptist gospel team will assist in this series of meetings, Jennings to preach Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Sunday evenings. He is a man of wonderful personality and now that his talents are turned in the right direction, great things are predicted for him.

STEPPING INTO THE BREACH

One of the lessons of Glendale's recent successful Festival of Fruits and Flowers was that a much greater success might have been chronicled had everyone jumped into the breach and done his best. In those terrible assaults that are going on against the hostile trenches in Belgium we are told that the soldiers on both sides never hesitate. They know that they are going to certain death, but they never flinch. They fling themselves into the breach made in the trench and fill up the gap if only some comrade may pass over to the discomfiture of the enemy.

In war it would spell disaster should any soldier hold back and say, "Let me see how things are going before I take a chance." If there were much of such a spirit it would not be long before the war would be finished. In similar manner it is easy to make things difficult in a city for all concerned in the advancement and welfare of the community. In such a juncture as that which confronted the city during the past few weeks there were many who stood back and waited to see what would be the result. As far as their efforts were concerned the result would have been nothing. Had it not been for others of whom not so much was expected the whole affair might easily have been a failure.

Those who thus courageously stepped into the breach deserve all honor and credit. Those who preferred to stand on the bank and encourage the struggling city in its brave swim through troubled waters have all the glory of the passive spectator. There is not the slightest doubt that most of the business men of the city approved the movement so ably carried out by the ladies and some of the leading and other men of the city, but quite a few of them were content to stand aside and merely bid God-speed to the workers.

In this as in other affairs of this kind it was to be noted that some of those who were counted on to do a great deal found themselves, by reason of circumstances best known to themselves, unable to do anything. Others, again, of whom but little if anything was expected, came forward and lent their aid in so efficient a manner that it was a pleasure to hear their loyal sentiments and to see them at work.

Glendale needs many men of this kind. The more citizens of this sort it has, the greater will be its progress and the more rapid its advance. There is as much need of loyalty in a city as in a country.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S BURDEN

No president of the United States was ever asked to sustain a greater burden than that which President Wilson is now shouldering. The situation created by Germany's deliberate delay in answering the recent message of the president is delicate to say the least. Ex-President Taft, whom no one will deny is an able jurist and a good judge, both by education and experience of foreign affairs, says: "I think the reply of the German government is irresponsible and inconclusive." With most of those who are unable to judge for themselves of the meaning and purpose of the German reply, Taft's judgment will be held good.

Others will be content to permit President Wilson to handle the question in such a manner as best befits the honor and reputation of the country. The national honor is perfectly safe in the hands of President Wilson; nor is he likely to impair in the slightest degree the stainless record of the generations who fought and died to make this land the home of freedom.

Meanwhile, the president will have the sympathy and will be conscious of the support of every loyal citizen, not excepting those of German extraction. All are Americans. All have found in the United States a home and a refuge; a welcome and a living; yea, much more than a living—they have found the right to think and feel like moral and immortal creatures.

Unaided by congress, in the solitude and silence of his own soul, the president of the United States is now working out the reply that may prove a history-making answer. Everyone knows that he seeks higher guidance than that of man in this moment of importance and every citizen prays that the result may be peace, but peace with honor.

THE NEW BRITISH EMPIRE

It was recently announced in the House of Commons that the British colonies would be consulted with regard to the terms of peace when the war is over. This is really a new and important departure in the policy of the British empire. It recognizes the unity of sentiment that has suddenly become a factor which must be reckoned with in all future dealings with the British.

The present war has brought out in most striking manner the unity of the great English-speaking empire that has spread its branches over the seas. It has brought to the front the oneness of purpose and action which has been apparent in the efforts of the overseas dominions to support the mother country.

One thing that is most striking about this great movement is the fact that offers of men, ships and goods came spontaneously from all the colonies and showed not only the strength of the lands which Britain has combined into a united whole, but also the abundance and multiplicity of the resources of each separate part of the empire.

To some of the enemies of the British empire this spectacle of solidarity from one end of the world to the other must come as a revelation. They flattered themselves that decadence had set in in the British nation and that it would be an easy matter to reduce that empire to a second-rate status. Instead of weakness being revealed, either nationally or individually, by the war, there has been a putting forth of strength undreamed of and, what is more important to the British themselves and to the world, a sudden revelation of the unity of the colonies with the mother country.

In the House of Commons the other day it was announced that this unity must not disappear in time of peace. An active and representative world empire has now become an accomplished fact. The gigantic transformation has revealed itself and in a short time the world will witness the impressive assembling of an imperial British parliament.

It may develop slowly, but it will develop none the less surely. The changes wrought in the inter-communication of countries separated by long stretches of seas by the rapidity of modern steamship service and the practical obliteration of distance by telegraphs of all kinds, is with absolute certainty welding together the different parts of the British empire into a world's union.

Singular to state it is the Germans who have been calling attention to this upgrowth of a British imperial union. They recognize it and do not conceal from themselves that it is a power that will have to be reckoned with in all future world combinations. Nothing but the destruction of British sea power can ever shatter this confederation of British states.

The fact that Memorial Day fell on Sunday and that the coming together of the two holidays made a kind of confusion in many minds, and led to a less general observance of the real nature of the day set apart for the decoration of the graves of the old soldiers and the keeping of the day as a memorial of the sacrifices they made for their country, none the less were the sentiments of the day to be found in the hearts of true Americans everywhere. Of recent years the day has begun to have a more general significance in connection with both North and South and the union of the former opposing sections is now frequently seen. That is as it should be. This is one people. The war united all the states and just as Memorial Day actually originated in the South, so now it should be a day of union and peaceful sympathy to both blue and gray.

CROP NOTES

In about two weeks the Pomona Valley Packing company will commence the season with a three-thousand-ton pack of apricots and peaches. The company is just completing what is said to be the most modern packing house to be found anywhere in the state.

Reports from San Jacinto say that the fruit crop in San Jacinto valley this season will be the largest for years. The apricot and peach trees are loaded and the olive crop will be above the average. The late rains have kept the foothills and mountain sides a mass of wild flowers, affording an abundance of bee food. The conditions promise to give the valley a honey crop greater than ever before. The bee men estimate that no less than two trainloads of honey will be shipped out over the San Jacinto branch of the Santa Fe this summer.

Reports from Banning are to the effect that the peach and apricot crops are very promising. Thinning has commenced. Peaches are as large as filberts. As thinning gives larger peaches, it is thought that it pays and also helps the trees. Large fruit always brings the most money. Apricots are of good size and some early ones will be ready for market in two weeks. Fruit of all kinds is developing fast under the warm weather. Growers are already preparing for harvest. The late rains brought out a good supply of food for the bees of the county and the bee men are looking forward to one of the best seasons for years.

For twenty-five years the crop from a lemon tree on the A. A. Stevens ranch near San Dimas was picked and marketed at the packing house of the San Dimas Lemon association, and then one day a packer cut into one of the lemons and found that instead of being sour, the fruit was absolutely sweet. Now the tree is full of fruit and nobody will buy it. It is estimated that 150 boxes of lemons have been sold from the sweet tree in the last quarter of a century, but the packing houses decline to take a chance on the fruit now that they know it contains no acid.—Pacific Fruit World.

NAME OMITTED

By some oversight the name of the owner of car No. 8, which won fifth prize in the division of passenger autos in the parade last Saturday was lost from the official list. It has now been ascertained that the owner was M. B. Hartmann, 210 Dayton court.

The name of the owner of car No. 12, another prize winner, was also lost from the official list. The News will be glad to publish the name if the owner will hand it in.

KERN RIVER OIL FIELD MAPS JUST OUT

Congressman Charles H. Randall of Highland Park has received a supply of maps of the Kern River oil fields, just issued by the United States geological survey. These maps are the most elaborate ever issued of this field, showing wells, tanks, reservoirs, etc. The contour is 20 feet and the scale is 5 1/2 inches to the mile. Mr. Randall will be glad to supply copies to oil men.

The girls are raising money to put the lawn in around the church and to keep it going.

A MESSAGE FROM CHINA

The Presbyterian congregation will have an unusual opportunity at the regular prayer meeting hour this evening when Mrs. Alfred Z. Gray, of Nanking, China, will tell of her work there. In these days of worldwide strife and struggle, when questions of peace and progress should concern all intelligent people it is helpful to hear a speaker like Mrs. Gray who has been on the foreign field and come in contact with all classes and conditions. All who can possibly do so should attend this important meeting. Don't forget the hour, 7:30, at the Presbyterian church.

POLAND'S APPEAL FOR HELP

A piteous appeal for help comes from bleeding Poland, where it is said that 7,000,000 people are starving as a result of being overrun for many long months by the armies of Russia, Germany and Austria-Hungary. Poland's sad story justifies the steps that have been taken to raise a relief fund for the Polish people. Now that the plight of the latter is becoming better known the great heart of the world is touched as it has been by the suffering of stricken Belgium. History will show that in this war the United States has surpassed every other effort of the kind in all of the history of mankind in seeking to serve the starving and homeless of foreign lands. In its greatest sense our people have revealed true humanitarian principles. The terrible story coming from Poland will serve to renew the efforts being made in the United States to relieve the heart-rending distress.—St. Joseph News-Pres.

An ordinance prohibiting heavy hauling on Brand boulevard in the city of Glendale, south of Colorado street, was taken up for first and second reading and on motion was laid over until the next regular meeting for third and final reading.

The manager of the public service department, to whom the bids for furnishing hydrants had been referred at a previous meeting, recommended that the bid of the Keystone Iron Works be accepted and that said company be instructed to furnish 40 hydrants at the price named in their bid as published last week.

The board entered into quite a lengthy discussion as to the advisability of installing single light or five-light electric light standards on Colorado street west of Glendale avenue. It was the opinion of the majority of the members that single light standards should be installed on that street as the increased expense of operating the five-light standards would be a financial burden to the city, especially should the practice of installing five-light standards become popular on all important streets of the city.

The hearing of protests against the granting of an easement to Mrs. Tight concerning certain alley adjacent to her property on Third street was taken up for consideration. Mrs. Tight withdrew her application for the easement on condition that the board of trustees grant her the privilege of caring for the fruit trees in said alley. This privilege was granted.

E. M. McClure, vice president of the Glendale Municipal league, read a lengthy resolution signed by himself criticizing the board on account of the slow procedure in calling an election to allow the citizens to vote for a fifth-class city. The resolution was received and referred to the city attorney who stated that his advice to the board concerning the resolution just read would coincide with the instructions he had previously given the board on this question, said instructions being published in full in the Glendale Evening News of May 11, copies of which may be obtained at this office. The city attorney's recommendation was on motion received and placed on file.

A motion prevailed that the city marshal be instructed to enforce the auto and motorcycle speeding ordinance. Further particulars concerning this ordinance will be published in the News tomorrow.

Adjournment.

MANNING FUNERAL

Mr. James Manning, who passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Earl Bond, 1563 Vine St., Glendale, on the 27th day of May, 1915, was buried from the Pulliam Undertaking parlors, Saturday, May 30, at Forest Lawn cemetery. Only the immediate friends and the family were present at the service. He leaves besides his widow nine children and three grandchildren, as follows: Wm. Manning, Mrs. Julia Kleisler, Mrs. D. E. Lane, Ada Manning, Frank Manning, Edward Manning, Mrs. E. Bond, Gladys Manning, Dale Manning, Harold Robirds, Maxine Robirds, Leonor Bond.

MEMORIAL DAY

One of our local veterans, who is modest enough not to wish his name published, reminds us in connection with Memorial day that that beautiful ceremony had a southern origin. The wife of Maj. Charles W. Williams, who died in 1862, and her little girl, visited his grave every day and often comforted themselves with wreathing it in flowers. While the mother would sit abstractedly, thinking of him whom she had lost the child would decorate other graves nearby and call them her soldiers' graves.

In March, 1866, Mrs. Williams published an appeal to the people of the south to join in setting apart a certain day "to be handed down through time as a religious custom of the south to wreathe the graves of our martyred dead with flowers. This plan was adopted all over the south and afterward throughout the United States.

SOCIAL FUNCTION PROMISES PLEASURE

The Robbinette club will be at home on Friday afternoon, June 4th, at Masonic hall in honor of Mrs. Evelyn Fletcher Copp and the Tuesday Afternoon club. There will be a short program, followed by a talk by Mrs. Fletcher Copp on the Fletcher system of kindergarten work. The Robbinette club, though a young organization, is becoming prominent as a singing club and takes great pride in being able to share this opportunity of hearing Mrs. Copp with the ladies of the Tuesday Afternoon club as guests.

Hill ClimbCAPTURES TROPHY IN
$1,000 CLASS AND FINISHES
SECOND IN FREE-FOR-ALL.

In competition with an imposing array of six and eight cylinder cars, a Dodge Brothers' motor car entered in the Annual Hill Climb at Spokane, Washington, May 15th, won first place in its class and finished second in the free-for-all event.

News of the Detroit car's splendid showing was received in a wire from the Seven-Sevens company, Dodge Brothers' dealer in Spokane, who were responsible for the car's entry.

The Spokane Hill-Climb takes place on a hill 2,074 feet long, (2-5 of a mile), with an average grade of 8 1/2 per cent. At one point there is a rise of 168 feet in two-fifths of a mile and the grade at this section approximates 17 1/2 per cent.

Supposedly a walk-away for the eight and six-cylinder cars entered in the event, the sturdy Dodge Brothers' car surprised the thousands of spectators by finishing second in the free-for-all event with the excellent time of 49 2-5 seconds. An eight cylinder car finished ahead of the four cylinder Dodge Brothers' car, which in turn defeated one eight and four six cylinder machines. The Dodge easily won in the $1,000 class in which it was entered.

In the free-for-all the contestants finished as follows:

| Time |
|------------------------------------|
| Cadillac eight first.....44 3-5 S. |
| Dodge Bros. 4 Cyl.....49 2-5 S. |
| Cole, eight Cyl.....49 3-5 S. |
| Buick four Cyl.....50 2-5 S. |
| Paige six Cyl.....51 2-5 S. |
| Chandler six Cyl.....52 1-5 S. |
| Hudson six Cyl.....54 3-5 S. |
| Franklin Six Cyl.55 2-5 S. |

EAGLE ROCK

Capt. D. C. Alcumbrock talked to the pupils of the Eagle Rock school Friday and greatly interested the children.

A daughter was born May 25 to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Miller of Peyton avenue.

The free concert given at the Methodist church Monday evening by Salem Parker was well attended. Mr. Parker, with the assistance of his wife, greatly pleased the congregation with their readings and songs. The purpose of this was to organize a singing class in Eagle Rock and a number joined the class. The convention will be held every night this week at Mrs. Kingdon's home on Fairmont avenue. Mr. Parker has proved himself most efficient in music, having taught in the east for 25 years.

The Women's Guild of the Presbyterian church will hold an all-day meeting this week Thursday at the church and it will be followed by a missionary meeting. There will be a picnic dinner at noon and in the afternoon Miss Lee, formerly a missionary, will speak to them.

The missionary meeting of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. C. W. Sanders last Thursday afternoon. It proved to be a very profitable meeting and Miss Von Dom of Pasadena talked to the ladies on the missionary work being done in our own country. Ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

Sunday morning union services were held at the Methodist church and the fine Memorial day sermon delivered by Rev. Smith was greatly appreciated by all, especially the old soldiers. Miss Graves of U. S. C. gave a reading, "Old Glory," by James Whitcomb Riley and Mr. Salem Parker gave the piece, "Barbara Freitchie," set to music. The choir also favored with a fine selection. In the evening the Methodists and Congregationalists united with the Presbyterians and listened to a very interesting talk led by Col. J. W. Eddy whose 83d birthday was Sunday and who was personally acquainted with Abraham Lincoln. Mrs. Blonda Banks Colbrun gave a reading and the choir favored the congregation with an anthem.

Mr. T. C. Mason, who has for some time been a resident of this city, will erect a beautiful home on Laurence avenue. It will be a nine-room house of green cement exterior and will cost about $6000.

The "Cafeteria" social given last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vince on Sycamore avenue proved a big success. When all the Epworth league members and friends had assembled each was given a cloth bag containing a certain amount of paper money. Bean race contests and various other contests and stunts were enjoyed and each person taking part in these was awarded so much in money and this caused much excitement and merriment. In this way all earned enough money (paper) to buy their suppers. All the "eats" were displayed on a long table the same as in a real cafeteria and trays, napkins, etc., were in evidence too. Four ladies presided at the table and a young man as cashier, who checked up the amount of each tray of "eats" as its owner carried it to another room to enjoy it. After supper a few minutes of "Spin the platter" were enjoyed, after which all departed, having expressed themselves as having passed a most enjoyable evening.

A men's society vaudeville will be given in the very near future by a number of our well known gentlemen citizens at the clubhouse on Colorado boulevard and Kenilworth avenue.

Mrs. Geo. Howard and daughter, Mrs. Thomas Carey, were guests of friends at Whittier last Monday.

Miss Grace Lientz, who has been sick with the measles, is able to be out again.

Three picnics were held the past week by several young ladies of the valley. The first one was held Saturday in Eagle Rock park by Miss Ruth Crandall and her Sunday school class of girls. On Monday another picnic was given in Eagle Rock park by Miss Bernice Lawton and her class of little girls. Then a number of young ladies enjoyed a picnic in Echo Park and certainly made use of the lake and volley ball courts, etc. It was a very tired bunch that returned home, but nevertheless did not regret going as it was a most beautiful day.

MRS. CAMPBELL DISCONTINUES
"AT-HOME" DAY

Mrs. Daniel Campbell of Ard-Eevin, North Glendale, has observed the first Thursday of each month as her "at-home" day during the twelve years of her residence in Glendale and has missed welcoming her friends due to unavoidable engagements on that day only once or twice in the twelve years. Mrs. Campbell wishes to announce that on account of the impassable condition of Kenneth road, which is undergoing improvements, it will be necessary for her to discontinue her "at home" days until this work is completed, which will likely be late this autumn.
